

FOIAb3b

U.S., Polish Intellectuals Finish Friendly Debate

CPYRGHT

WARSAW, May 9—The first of other European states, the Polish-United States round clearly presented, according to American sources, tonight after three days of. The Warsaw meeting friendly, uninhibited debate marked a new development in on economic, political and cultural East-West debates. It was the first time that a Soviet bloc American intellectuals, country had organized a

A communique said there broad-ranging and uninhibited would be further discussions discussion on areas of inter- about a second meeting in the national dispute with Ameri- United States but no date was can intellectuals.

Polish speakers reflected financial support for the their country's preoccupation meeting was provided by the with West German policies the Ford Foundation and similar and emphasized the desir- backing would be necessary ability of official Western rec- for a resumption of the de- ognition of the present Polish- German frontiers.

All debates were private and Talks Are Friendly members agreed not to dis- U.S. representatives said close individual contributions they found in areas of angry to the exchanges. It was gen- dispute with the Poles, who erally agreed among Ameri- were convergent with the pres- can participants, however, that ent American social and politi- cal climate.

The American participants were: Frederick Burckhardt, chairman of the American Scientific Organization Council; Harold Baldwin, New York Times correspondent; Elliot H. Chairman, McGraw-Hill Publishing Co.; Prof. Zdzislaw Brzedinski, Columbia University; William E. Griffith, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Prof. John Monks, Yale University; Lionel Trilling, Columbia University; and Robert Ford Foundation Inter- Division, director.